JOIN TROOP 442 FOR...

Fun . . .

Tradition . . .

Learning . . .

Personal growth . . .

Rank advancement . . .

These are the core elements that define Troop 442.

Whether it's rock climbing at Joshua Tree National Park with trained climbers providing instruction and encouragement to all boys; summer camp where boys learn new skills and come home with the satisfaction of having earned merit badges and new skills; a flag retirement ceremony at a campout where our boys reflect on the meaning and history behind the stars and stripes or going on a campout at Magic Mountain or hitting the slopes on a ski weekend: fun, tradition, learning, personal growth and rank advancement are part of each of these experiences.

ABOUT TROOP 442

Troop 442 is a nondenominational troop that meets every other Monday night at the King of Glory Lutheran Church, located at the corner of Slater and Los Alamos in Fountain Valley. The twice monthly schedule is ideal for parents and boys with busy schedules that include school and sports activities in addition to scouting.

The size of our troop allows the scout many opportunities to learn leadership skills, receive individual attention and earn merit badges with the goal of achieving Eagle rank.

Behind our boy run troop is an active group of parent volunteers, some former scouts, who are dedicated to helping our boys shape a program that is fun, rewarding and meaningful.
